

Wereldmuziek in de wijk - Alper Kekec

woensdag 5 september 2018 | 19:30 - 20:30 uur | De Meevaart

Wereldmuziek: Muziek uit verschillende hoeken van de wereld.

'Wereldmuziek in de wijk' is een initiatief van Stichting Connecting Strings en de Meevaart. De gastheer van de reeks programma's is Mehmet Polat.

Ons doel is om een oprechte kennismaking met verschillende muziektradities uit de wereld in een informele sfeer aan te bieden.

Dit evenement vindt elke eerste woensdag van de maand plaats, met elke keer een andere gastmuzikant of ensemble. De gast wordt geïnterviewd over zijn of haar muziekstijl en zal een live concert geven.

Gast artiest:

Alper Kekec was born in 15 February 1975 in Istanbul, Bakirkoy. He has moved to Trakya (North-West part of Turkey) with his family and lived there until 18. After finishing his Highschool he moved to Izmir. He has first introduced with music in early ages and instead of playing guitar as many youngsters do, he continued playing Baglama (turkish folk guitar) after a mandolin education at school. In 1995 he entered to Ege University Conservatory and studied "tar" (Azerbaijan folk guitar). After awhile he introduced with percussions and went on his music career with rhythm instruments. He has recorded 2 albums with band called "Umuda Ezgi" He has played percussion and drum in many music styles. He has played almost all folk music singers in Turkey. In 2004 he was accepted to West African department of Amsterdam Conservatory. Last year he started recording his solo album and completed it. Now he is teaching "Darbuka" at Rotterdam and Amsterdam Conservatories and going on working as a concert musician. Alper plays: darbuka, bendir, aski davul, khon, riqq, djembe, drum, lavta (lute), baglama + vocal.

Locatie: De Meevaart, Balistraat 48A, Amsterdam

Deur open: 18.30

Aanvang: 19.30

* The project is supported by the municipality of Amsterdam, Stadsdeel Oost.

(<https://www.facebook.com/demeevaart/>)

de meevaart

Balistraat 48A

1094JN Amsterdam

Tel: 020-331 9131

KVK nummer: 53233786

RSIN: 850803391